WHEREAS, Harland Johnson is retiring after twenty-two years of service to the Nebraska Legislature; and

WHEREAS, during Harland's twenty-two-year tenure, in addition to his regular duties as Coordinator of Legislative Services, he served as an officer of the Legislature as Chaplain Coordinator for eleven years. He also coordinated the United Way Campaigns and food drives for the Legislature; and

WHEREAS, Harland has exemplified the spirit of citizenship and volunteerism through his service to many causes, including the American Red Cross, YMCA, Y-Pals, Rotary Club, his church, United Way, and many others; and

WHEREAS, Harland's service to the Legislature and volunteer service to Nebraska have had a significant impact and deserve special recognition upon his retirement.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE MEMBERS OF THE

NINETY-SIXTH LEGISLATURE OF NEBRASKA, FIRST SESSION:

1. That the members of the Nebraska Legislature congratulate Harland Johnson and extend their thanks for his years of service, in addition they extend their best wishes to Harland and his wife, Eulah, as Harland begins his retirement.

2. That the Clerk of the Legislature prepare a copy of this resolution for presentation to Harland.
